

Songs & Fingerplays

Jack Frost

Jack Frost nips at your nose,
Tingles your fingers,
Tickles your toes!
Jack Frost soon will be here -
Riding the breeze -
Painting the trees -
That's how we know that winter is near!

- B. Wolf

Humpty Dumpty

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall.
(hold forearm as though looking at wristwatch, with fist of opposite hand on arm.)
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall - Boom!
(sway fist as though rocking back and forth on forearm, then bend wrist down so that Humpty Dumpty drops off wall.)
All the king's horses and all the king's men
(Establish a rhythm by beating hands on thighs to simulate horses galloping. Sing or chant lings to this rhythm)
Couldn't put Humpty together again -
Couldn't put Humpty together again!
Why? (Extend hands outward in a large shrug.)
Because he was an egg!
(Extend hands slowly rise to meet over head, simulating an egg shape. Fingers meet on the word egg.)

Name Song

_____, that's my name; that's what people call me.
(your) _____ (you)
_____, _____ ! That's a very fine name, in-deed!

So Many Ways to Say, "Good Morning"

In English we say, "Good Morning." "Good Morning" "Good Morning"

In English we say, "Good Morning" "Good Morning to you!"

2. In Spanish we say, "Buenos Días" (buay-nos dé-as)

3. In Korea we say, "An nyung." (on yúng)

4. In French we say, "Bonjour." (bone-zhóor)

5. In Japanese we say, "Ohayo gozaimasu," (ohio-guh-zái-mus)

6. In German we say, "Guten morgen." (goo-ten mór-gen)

7. However you say good morning, say it with a friendly smile.

I'm A Special Person and So Are You

Here's a little song that is fun to do, say,

"I'm a special person and so are you."

Say it with your (head) here's what you do, (nod),

I'm a special person and so are you."

Additional verses:

Eyes-blink.....

Tongue - click.....

Shoulders-shrug....

Arms-flap...

Hips-sway...

Feet-jump...

Now sit down-bump....

Hands-clap....

Now let's whisper say (whisper).....